1. Call to Order

Chair Anthony Sun called the meeting to order at 4:10 p.m. A quorum of the full Commission was not present; however, a quorum of the executive committee was. Mr. Sun welcomed guests from the Alumni Society, AAM Council, Jade Circle Steering Committee and other guests in attendance. He encouraged everyone to stay for the Connoisseurship Presentation to take place immediately following adjournment of the meeting—a presentation by Chief Curator and Curator of South and Southeast Asian Art Forrest McGill entitled “Fakes and Problem Pieces in SEA Art.”
2. Approval of Minutes

Minutes from the March 22, 2011 meeting were approved as written.

3. Chair’s Report

In his chair’s remarks, Tony Sun noted Jay Xu’s director’s report later in the meeting would feature the museum’s branding initiative. Tony noted that thanks to the initiative and foresight of staff and board, the museum’s strategic plan led to strong initiatives such as the branding project. He briefly but eloquently spoke about the importance of the museum always striving to evolve in the direction of relevance and to never compromise on excellence. Tony called on Director Jay Xu who provided an update on the museum’s Nexus group on behalf of Nexus co-chairs Akiko Yamazaki and David Pong Chun-Yee.

4. Finance and Audit Committee Report

COO Mark McLoughlin presented the museum’s balanced operating budget proposed for FY 11-12. Audit Committee Chair Kevin McCabe reported a clean, unqualified opinion audit for FY 2009-2010, explaining the delay in reviewing the audit was a result of the bond restructuring which required negotiations to be complete before finishing the audit. Kevin thanked fellow committee members, Tim Kahn, Bill Kim, Leslie Tang Schilling and Tom Woofter.

5. Consideration and Possible Action Items

   a. Expression of Appreciation to Commissioner Victoria E. Johnston for Service on the Asian Art Commission
